Training Experience Services

Laurie Birt obtained her California CSR license and her RPR certification in 1981 in San Francisco. She worked freelance depositions, public hearings and served as an official court reporter pro tempore in both municipal and superior courts in the San Francisco Bay Area.

She accepted a position as an official court reporter for the San Mateo County Superior Court in 1984, working on capital murder trials and complex civil litigation.

In 1996, Laurie became associated with Behmke Reporting & Video Services, specializing in major, complex civil litigation.

In October of 1998, she moved to Knoxville, Tennessee, where she now works as a freelance court reporter providing the same quality, professional service to her clients.

Always professional, timely, courteous service using the latest technology and equipment. Please ask if there is something not on this list that you would like.

Code of Ethics

Laurie Birt Court Reporting maintains the highest ethical standards and is a proud member of the National Court Reporters Association Ethics First program, ensuring prompt, professional, impartial service to all parties. The Code of Professional Ethics as promulgated by NCRA is shown below.

We also follow the Standards of Professional Conduct as set forth by the Tennessee Board of Court Reporting in Rule 0455-01-04-.01

1. Be fair and impartial toward each participant in all aspects of reported proceedings, and always offer to provide comparable services to all parties in a proceeding.
 2. Be alert to situations that are conflicts of interest or that may give the appearance of a conflict of interest. If a conflict or a potential conflict arises, the Member shall disclose that conflict or potential conflict.
 3. Guard against not only the fact but the appearance of impropriety.
 4. Preserve the confidentiality and ensure the security of information, oral or written, entrusted to the Member by any of the parties in a proceeding.
 5. Be truthful and accurate when making public statements or when advertising the Member's qualifications or the services provided.
 6. Refrain, as an official reporter, from freelance reporting activities that interfere with official duties and obligations.
 7. Determine fees independently, except when established by statute or court order, entering into no unlawful agreements with other reporters on the fees to any user.
 8. Refrain from giving, directly or indirectly, any gift, incentive, reward or anything of value to attorneys, clients, witnesses, insurance companies or any other persons or entities associated with the litigation, or to the representatives or agents of any of the foregoing, except for (1) items that do not exceed $100 in the aggregate per recipient each year, or, (2) pro bono services as defined by the NCRA Guidelines for Professional Practice or by applicable state and local laws, rules and regulations.
 9. Maintain the integrity of the reporting profession.
 10. Abide by the NCRA Constitution & Bylaws.
